Tommy Mundon

Mundon in message to fans over disease

Black Country comedian Tommy Mundon, who recently revealed that he is battling against Parkinson's Disease, has a message for his fans – "I ay jed yet!"

Tommy, aged 77, has a packed series of bookings for the autumn and says he is coping well with performing, despite his progressive neurological illness. It was revealed in March that Tommy, who lives with his wife, Val, in Alexandra Road, Halesowen, is in the early stages of Parkinson's.

He is being treated with patches that slowly release medication to control the pain and physiotherapy at Stourbridge's Corbett Hospital.

"I thank everybody for all their good wishes and I will be back on the road again soon," said Tommy.

"I want all my fans to know I ay jed yet and I'm willing and able to perform!" He is booked to appear with the Black Country Night Out team, including Aynuk and Wombourne folk group Giggety, for a series of shows. These days, because of his illness, he writes down the words for his 20-minute set in full, rather than just a rough draft.

He said of his illness: "I have some bad days and some good days – but I'm as keen as ever to be on the road performing."

He and the rest of the Black Country Night Out show will be performing at Solihull on October 4, the Garrick Theatre, Tamworth, on October 14, the Prince of Wales Theatre, Cannock on October 20 and Huntingdon Hall, Worcester, on October 21. On November 12 they will be at the Barn Theatre, Witton, Birmingham and on November 18 at Dudley Concert Hall.

Drink driver avoids an immediate prison term

A drunk driver caught by police who was nearly five times over the legal limit after travelling to a chip shop has been issued with a jail threat.

Justin Eberle was given an 18-week suspended sentence for drink driving 500 yards from the chip shop on Valley Road in Cradley Heath to his home on Haden Park Road on July 7.

A member of the public reported the 46-year-old's registration details to police and described him as "totally drunk", struggling to get out of his car before entering the chip shop and being unsteady on his feet, Sandwell Magistrates Court heard last week.

Officers traced Eberle back to his home, where he told police he had drunk only two-and-a-half pints.

But when he was breathalysed the officer described the reading as "the highest he had ever seen" at a level of 167 microgrammes in 100 millilitres of breath. The legal limit is set at 35mg.

Registration

Mrs Rachael Smith, prosecuting, said: "There was a report from the member of the public from the Valley Road chip shop saying the defendant was totally drunk."

"Officers traced the registration details and went to his home."

"When they interviewed him he said he went to fetch chips for his children and had only drunk two-and-a-half pints."

Mr Charles Menama, defending, said: "He had an alcohol-related problem and there was no immediate danger to anyone else."

Magistrates added a 120-month supervision order and ordered Eberle to complete a drink drivers' programme. He was banned from driving for four years and told to pay £85 court costs. He pleaded guilty at an earlier hearing.

Man bailed after church stabbing

A 51-year-old man who was arrested after a man was stabbed several times in a Halesowen graveyard has been bailed.

Police found the 29-year-old victim bleeding in the churchyard of St John the Baptist Church, off The Queensway, Halesowen, earlier this month.

His injuries were not thought to be life threatening.

Police said the 51-year-old had been bailed until late September while further inquiries were made.

A 54-year-old man also arrested in connection with the incident has been bailed until the same time.

No-one has been charged. Police said investigations into the stabbing were ongoing.

Dazzling of pilot ends in £75 fine

A man who repeatedly shone a laser pen at a police helicopter – dazzling the pilot – has been fined £75.

Hasib Khan, aged 20, used the £6 device in the early hours while with a group of friends at the Clet Hills near Halesowen.

The light was shone in the pilot's eyes and he was forced to turn up the lights on his dials as his vision was blurred. Dudley Magistrates Court heard.

The car in which Khan was a passenger was then chased by the helicopter and police officers through Halesowen.

Khan, of Southlands Road, Moseley, Birmingham, admitted a charge of shining a light at an aircraft in flight so as to dazzle or distract the pilot.

Turned

Pilot Trevor Tiller had been flying the West Midlands Police helicopter towards West Bromwich at about 12.40am last Monday for a separate incident when he saw the red laser beam enter the cockpit.

Mr Mark Cooper, prosecuting, said: "Captain Tiller turned his head away from the beam and had to increase the illumination on his dials so he could see them."

Khan was not represented by a solicitor in court.

He said he did not know that the aircraft he was targeting was a police helicopter.

Khan said he bought the pen for £6.

Khan was fined £75 by the court, and ordered to pay £85 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

HEAT OF ANGER OVER FIRE PLAN

Residents are protesting against plans to close a Black Country fire station amid fears it will put lives at risk and leave the area poorly protected in an emergency.

Householders in Hagley Road, Huntingtree Road and Cherry Tree Lane, Halesowen, have launched campaigns demanding the town's fire station be kept open.

West Midlands Fire Service plans to merge the station with its counterpart in Cradley Heath which is expected to see the closure of both existing stations.

A replacement would be created on the border of both towns – but the service has confirmed that it will be served by only a single engine. Residents in the town have launched and signed petitions against the scheme and signs have now been put up at homes and businesses in the area. Placards will be put up outside some properties to raise awareness of the campaign.

Worker Pam Quartey said: "We have had a lot of people come in a fill out a card. Residents are very concerned about this plan."

Cherry Tree Lane resident Tony Barnsley, 43, said: "I have been involved in a number of campaigns through the years but I have never known people to be so unanimous in their position before."

Opposition

"We want the fire authority to review this decision. The fire service needs to feel the heat of the anger. Otherwise they will continue to close the station," Mr Barnsley said the petitions would be handed to the Fire Brigade Union, which is protesting against the plan, to be sent on to fire officials.

All Occasions Florists, on Hagley Road, also has small cards on which people can write their objections.

The fire service has already launched a consultation asking residents for their views on the plan. The service has said no plans are yet set in stone and they will listen to the views of residents before making a final decision.

Pub fun boosts football club

A Rowley Regis pub hosted a day of family fun and football in aid of a local club.

The Sir Robert Peel pub in Rowley Village held fundraising activities for Paschendale FC that included a bouncy castle and face painting for the youngsters and a tennis tournament and darts competition for the adults.

Visitors then took part in a pub quiz.

Organiser and team manager Kevin Redmond said he was delighted with the turnout.

He added: "It costs more than you think to run a football club and with rising pitch fees we need to get the money in." Paschendale FC has 28 players in two teams.

Success for waste centre

A recycling project at Halesowen Leisure Centre has been hailed a success. Staff and customers have recycled more than 54 tons of rubbish since the scheme started two years ago.

The centre has collected nearly 1,000 bags of plastic bottles and 30 bins of waste paper which are collected by Sita UK and recycled into products including corrugated cardboard and tissue paper. The centre has also saved more than £1,500 through the reduction of waste.

Student delight over A success

Thousands of students across Dudley have been celebrating another year of top A-level results.

There were plenty of smiles as pupils throughout the borough flocked to their schools and colleges to find out their grades. Among them were happy students at Dudley College which reported a 100 per cent pass rate in 26 subjects.

Sellani McKenzie, aged 18, of Clement Place, Bilston, achieved two As, a B and a D in law, maths, sociology and psychology. "I'm so pleased - I was sure I would fail one but I haven't," she said.

"I'm really looking forward to going off to uni now I don't have to worry any more - I'm going to the University of Kent to do law which will be great. I'm definitely off out to celebrate."

Another happy student was Jack Weston, 18, of Prince Street, Cradley Heath, who achieved two As and a C in maths, accountancy and chemistry. "I am over the moon with it," he said.

Confirmed

He said he is now heading to Aberystwyth University in September to study maths. Principal Lowell Williams said the overall pass rate was 97 per cent. "This is an extremely pleasing set of results from the students studying in our A level Academy."

Meanwhile 27 students at Old Swinford Hospital School in Stourbridge had extra reason to celebrate after achieving three or more A* or A grades.

The overall pass rate at the school was 99 per cent. Four students had their places confirmed at Oxbridge on the strength of their results, including Ross Williamson from Hagley, who will study human sciences at Oxford University.

Students and staff at Edgely High School in Kinver were also marking record results.

Cheers, tears and celebrations echoed through King Edward VI College, Stourbridge, as students collected one of the most successful sets of results the school has ever seen.

Pupils shared hugs and frantically phoned their parents to let them know whether or not they had made the grade and would be off to university in the autumn.

Among the crowd was Sian Horseman, 19, who worked hard to get three A*s and two As after having to take a year out last year due to illness. "I'm very very pleased, especially after everything last year," she said.

Her subjects included law, business studies and geography, and her top marks now mean she can go on to study geography at the University of Birmingham and hopes eventually to become a geography teacher or a planner.

Meanwhile, new Oxbridge student Sam Fowkes, 18, of Highfield Crescent, Halesowen, learned he would be heading off to the University of Oxford to study philosophy, politics and economics after achieving one A* and two As. "It's just unbelievable - I'm absolutely thrilled," he said. "I called my mum and she started crying down the phone, she was so happy."

India Raybould, aged 20, of Long Close, Hagley, achieved one of the highest set of results at the college, getting four A*s and three As in subjects including history, sociology, psychology and general studies.

"I'm so surprised - I worked really hard but never imagined I would get results like this," she said. She said thanks to her high grades, she has been accepted for a place at the University of Manchester to study psychology.

And Jonathan Hunt, 18, of Handley Close, Halesowen, achieved two A*s and three As in dance, English, psychology and biology. "I'm really pleased - English especially is a total surprise," he said. "I can go and study physiotherapy at Cardiff in September now."

Record

Overall, the college achieved a pass rate of 96.1 per cent and Halesowen announced record results with 98.6 per cent of students achieving a pass.

Katie Barwell, from Sedgely, was celebrating with her mother Jane as she achieved A grades in law, history and English literature and an A grade in AS communications.

The former pupil of Dormston School, aged 18, will now be studying English literature at Birmingham University.

Katie said: "I am delighted with my results, it has been nerve wracking but I will definitely be celebrating later with my friends and family." Her mother added: "I am so pleased for Katie, she has worked extremely hard and really deserves this success."

Another student celebrating was Abhimanyu Jaiswal who is going on to study pharmacy at Aston University. The 18-year-old from Bearwood picked up his results today and achieved an A in maths, A in psychology, B in chemistry and an A in AS biology. He said: "I am looking forward to studying at Aston University and I am so pleased with my results."

Eighteen-year-old Danielle Newman achieved A grades in maths, psychology and law and a B in further maths. She will be studying psychology at Birmingham University.

Danielle, from Smethwick and a former pupil of Brinstall High School, said: "I am so pleased with my results, we are all really on a high."

Principal Keith Bate said: "I am delighted with this record breaking year recognising the tremendous hard work and commitment of students."

Have your cake ... and eat it

ANYONE on a diet should look away now, for this Victorian tearoom is not for the faint hearted. Laden with freshly-made cakes, scones, shortbreads and flapjacks, the 110-year-old room in Wolverhampton's West Park has been run by Halesowen resident Lynn Jones since a revamp in 2005, has proved to be very popular with customers. Mrs Jones, pictured here with catering assistant Meena Kumari, has worked in catering for 35 years and spends two hours baking every day at her home for what she called her labour of love. "As soon as I walked in I knew that it was the place for me," she, added.

Council in offer to sell extra green bins

Extra green bins and bags for people in Dudley who need to get rid of more garden rubbish will be going on sale in time for new collections beginning in September.

For £25, residents will be able to buy either a second green bin or two heavy-duty reusable bags, depending on collections in that area – although each house will be limited to just one order.

They will then have to pay an annual fee of £60 for the extra rubbish to be picked up.

Environmental services boss Councillor David Stanley said money generated by the optional new service would be ploughed back into paying for vehicle maintenance and wages.

"This is an extremely cost-effective and effortless way in which to dispose of additional green waste and I hope many people utilise this service," he said.

"Our green waste service is very popular and we know that some households will definitely benefit from being able to purchase an additional green bin or bag to assist them with disposing of their green waste."

Complaints

He said if people move home, they will also be able to take the bins or bags and transfer the extra collections to their new home.

The scheme will begin on September 1, although anyone interested will be able to buy the new bin in advance as delivery will take up to two weeks. Last year, Dudley Council introduced a controversial new system for bin collections in a drive to save £250,000.

The move limited the number of bags/bins were allowed to collect to just three, sparking more than 1,000 complaints from residents within the first week.

The money was clawed back by cutting the number of bins per truck from four to three, ending the use of agency staff to cover shortages, and cutting down on the amount of rubbish being collected by encouraging recycling.

Fears on homes plan at 800-year-old abbey

Historic artefacts at an 800-year-old abbey could be lost as work starts on new homes and a visitor centre there, campaigners have warned.

The Halesowen Abbey Trust is concerned that features could be damaged when diggers move into the site later this year.

And members say they want to ensure that projects like this "never happen again".

It was revealed last week that work was due to start in the autumn on the development at the 800-year-old abbey. The trust opposed the plans and, along with Rowley Regis and Halesowen MP James Morris, have called for an archaeological dig to be carried out before any building starts.

The £500,000 project will see six barns turned into homes and a new visitor centre built.

Trust secretary Freer said: "All work requiring Scheduled Monument Consent should be carefully evaluated before agreeing to it, with protection of the integrity of the monument being a priority."

He warned that most of the barns overlay "the most sensitive area of archaeological interest".

Planning permission was granted in February for the work.

An English Heritage spokesman said: "The ruins of the abbey are scheduled as an ancient monument and some of the farmstead is listed."

A staff shortage stops Steven's denture business from beaming

A Dudley businessman who is helping to put a smile on the face of patients as far away as Spain is struggling to expand his dental business - despite being inundated with work.

National advertising campaigns for a dental prosthetics technician to join Steven Burchell's team have failed to generate a single application.

Clinical dental technician Mr Burchell, who runs the Denture Clinic, North Street, has been left stunned by the "wall of silence" in the jobs market.

He has advertised on a specialist dental technology website and in local newspapers.

He blames a burgeoning market in China that is flooding the UK with cheap prescriptions and fears it is now impacting on graduate training programmes.

Mr Burchell said: "The skills base is being compromised by a range of work being put out to foreign labs and that means our student trainees are struggling to get vital placements that can fully develop their skills.

"Basically, I need someone who can produce high quality dentures, but I'm getting nowhere fast."

Believe

"I've completed my second month-long advertising campaign for a dental technician, offering competitive rates, and all I get is a wall of silence."

"I cannot believe how difficult it is to expand."

"The business has a great country-wide reputation with dentists and patients and we're on the very cusp of clinical developments in Dudley."

Mr Burchell wants to expand his business into Wolverhampton.

"In recent months I've been building a new team but a pivotal role is an additional dental technician," he said.

"Our turnover forecast is up on last year, we have people travelling to us from as far away as Spain to get problems resolved and our laboratory is stacked out with work."

Anyone interested should call him on 01384 348594.

Stage set for classic

A Black Country theatre group will perform a version of classic novel The 39 Steps.

The play is a pastiche of the John Buchan book and incorporates elements of the film directed by Alfred Hitchcock.

Each actor plays multiple characters and few props are used.

Dudley Little Theatre will take the production to Netheron Arts Centre on September 7 at 7.30pm. Tickets are £6.

£10,000 blueprint for church revamp

A detailed blueprint costing up to £100,000 has been drawn up by parishioners desperate to renovate a Quarry Bank church.

New electronic bells with speakers installed in the bell tower could ring out as part of the transformation.

The restoration for Christ Church could be the catalyst to regenerate an ailing high street, say campaigners. The bell sounds would play out to create a more traditional ring on special occasions such as weddings and christenings.

Christ Church, off High Street, only has a single bell at the moment and church members feel the improved sound could boost numbers.

Various plans including both internal and external renovations have been identified by parishioners and members of the town's own friends group.

Chairman of the Friends of Quarry Bank, Brian Genner, said the plans were exciting with everyone involved at the church.

Priority

"We have considered improving the peal or ring of the bells to make it more traditional sounding," he said. "We are actively looking at ways to improve both the visual and audible appearance of the church."

The church's organ is also in desperate need of work costing up to £50,000.

But Mr Genner said there are fears it could have to be replaced altogether if works prove too costly.

Plaster works and general decorating have also been earmarked as a priority.

Church members are also keen to make more of the main body of the building for community use when services are not being held.

This will include installing removable pews and stage so the main hall becomes more multi-use.

"We want to be able to make more use of the church itself and these are just some of the ideas that we have come up with to do this," Mr Genner said.

"I must reiterate that these are all simply ideas which we have drawn up at this stage."

Mr Genner says full plans will be submitted to Dudley Council's planning document and the Diocese of Worcester in the coming months.

'Headmaster' Tony McGee and his daughter, Hayley McGee, get out their costumes for the Mary Stevens Hospice Back to Skool disco Grown-ups can don their old uniform and revisit their school days at a Back to Skool disco to raise cash for Mary Stevens Hospice.

Sounds of the 60s, provided by Pegasus Entertainment, will flood the dancefloor at Dudley Kingswinford Rugby Club on September 16, under the watchful eye of 'headmaster' Tony McGee.

A tuck shop offering a range of penny sweets and snacks will be open and a traditional dinner lady will be serving dishes full of pink sponge and ice cream.

Guests can take their own refreshments but alcohol will only be on offer from the club bar. A head boy and head girl will be chosen for the evening for the best outfit.

Tickets are £8, available from the fundraising team on 01384 377778 or online at: www.marystevenshospice.co.uk

Wendy back at home after her gruelling climb

Cancer fight leads to mountain climb

Just six months ago, sporty university researcher Wendy Nicholls sat reeling in a doctor's chair as they broke the news – she was suffering with skin cancer.

A whirlwind few weeks followed as she underwent an operation to remove the mole and any tissue which may have been affected, and biopsies were taken to test whether the disease had spread. But the 31-year-old, who is a member of the Dudley-Kingswinford Running Club, has now fought her way back to fitness – and earlier this month conquered the 15,774ft-high Mont Blanc for charity.

"One day I just noticed that a mole on my arm was bleeding. I didn't think much of it but when it happened again a couple of weeks later, I thought I should get it checked," said Miss Nicholls, of Penn, Wolverhampton.

"The doctor told me it was probably nothing to worry about so when they called me in to Russells Hall Hospital I just went on my own. I was stunned."

She was immediately whisked off to be screened for MRSA, and went under the knife a week later, on February 23. "They took so much off, it just felt like one of those tight blood pressure monitors strapped around my arm all the time." She then had to undergo an operation to test her lymph nodes to see whether the cancer had spread – and luckily, it hadn't.

"That's when I decided to do something big to raise money – and Mont Blanc just seemed like the best choice," she said. "After several weeks of not being able to do anything, my fitness levels had dropped so I started doing short runs with the Dudley-Kingswinford Running Club again, and joined the West Bromwich Mountaineering Club where they really helped prepare me for the climb. It was the scariest thing I have ever had to do in my life but I'm so proud of myself for getting out there and not letting this beat me."

The three-day climb has raised £831.38 and she is aiming for £1,000 to donate to cancer charity Macmillans.

To donate to Wendy's efforts, visit the website which can be found at <http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/wendynicholls>

Crossing on way near to school

A pedestrian crossing will be installed in Cradley Heath using surplus money from a £3.5 million roadworks scheme.

Work to widen Reddal Hill Road, to improve junctions and provide new on-street parking, finished recently.

Cradley Heath councillor Ann Shackleton had campaigned for a pelican crossing at the spot near the Salvation Army headquarters, library and Corngreaves Primary School. She said: "We are thrilled. We have been campaigning for a crossing there for around three years."

Traders complained businesses had been hard by the work and demanded Sandwell Council bring forward the completion date, which had been set for Christmas.

During the 10 months of works, the owners of the rock 'n' roll venue The Regis Suite put it on the market for £900,000 after attendances dropped.

Stephen Pitts, of TeeT Shirts on Reddal Hill Road, took a pay cut with business partner Warren John McCabe-Smith to avoid laying off staff during the scheme. Mr Pitts said: "We've tailored our work more to the internet to avoid the brunt of it but our footfall has dropped from around 30 a day to eight."

Group aims for grant

Campaigners are drawing up an application for lottery funding to help a regeneration scheme for a Black Country community centre.

A long campaign has been organised by the Friends of Quarry Bank to bring improvements. Members have been working with the council to submit an application for £10,000 from the National Lottery. The cash would be used to create a feasibility study investigating works needed to be done to the building in Sheffield Street. Friends group chairman Brian Jenner said: "It is something that we are excited about and have been working on with the council," he said. The group believes works to improve the centre would aid regeneration. Works have started on restoring Christ Church in the street. Dudley Council's cabinet member for regeneration, Councillor Angus Adams, said: "Our regeneration officers are working closely with the community centre committee."

Couple back from day out find crash damage

A retired couple returned from a day out to find a car had ploughed into the front of their house – putting the building at risk of collapse.

Fire crews and paramedics were called to Kent Road, Halesowen, after the Renault Clio left the road and careered into the semi-detached property, which was empty at the time. It had skidded across two gardens before smashing into a parked car. It ended up hitting the house beneath the bay window.

Retired long distance lorry driver Barry Brian, aged 63, had taken his wife Janet for a drive when they were called by their son Daniel after the crash at about 11.30am on Monday. The driver of the car, an 18-year-old woman, had to be treated at the scene by paramedics. She suffered a deep cut where her seatbelt had dug in. Another woman, also 18, who was a passenger in the vehicle, was also treated for minor injuries.

Both were taken to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham, for further assessment and treatment.

Collision

Structural engineers shored up the building to prevent any risk of collapse.

The structure of a bay window was broken in the collision and brick work was also knocked loose.

Mr Brian said: "You can't get angry about these things. We are covered by insurance and the main thing is that no-one was badly hurt. It looked quite horrific when we got back and saw the car being winched away but there's nothing that can be done about it now."

Fire crews were called to the scene and stayed for around two hours to make the vehicle safe.

Crew commander Andy Steadman said: "The vehicle collided with the front of the house knocking out the window and causing heavy damage to the front."

Knitters donate baby clothes to hospital

Morris and Gwen White, front, with back, L-r, Lillian Foster, manager Lisa Geddes, recreational and leisure organisers Matthew Pound, Jill Haden and Aileen Lunn

A knitting group is making its first donation of baby clothing to Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital.

The cardigans, hats and blankets will be taken to the neo-natal unit for little babies born prematurely.

They have been made by residents and staff at Broadway Halls Care Home in Dudley. Their families have also chipped in and given time to help make some of the clothing.

All together they have created around 30 cardigans, 50 hats and 25 blankets which will be delivered to the hospital. Jill Haden, who is the activities co-ordinator at the care home in The Broadway, said some of the women began knitting scarves before moving onto baby clothes two months ago.

She said: "The ladies were getting a bit bored of just knitting scarves so I had a look on the internet and saw that they could do tiny baby clothes."

Traders worry over changes on parking

TRADERS say they will be forced out of business if plans for parking bans outside their Black Country shops are given the go-ahead.

More than 600 people have signed a petition in a bid to challenge Dudley Council's proposals to install double yellow lines outside shops in Howley Grange Lane, Halesowen.

Around 70 roads in the town could be given parking bans or restrictions as part of a scheme devised by council transport bosses. Officials say the proposals were drawn up in response to complaints about parking in the streets.

Plans would mean double yellow lines would start at Howley Grange Lane at the junction with Frankley Avenue.

Extending

Lines would be painted along one side of the road before extending into Spies Lane and Shenstone Valley Road. A parking bay is proposed along the opposite side of the road.

Chip shop owner Kulvinder Khela, aged 40, has helped organise the petition. "Times are so tough at the moment and we do not need this as well," he said.

Resident Ian Cooper, 45, a member of the Halesowen Labour group, added: "Hundreds of signatures were collected within just a couple of weeks which shows the strength of feeling for people around here."

Transport bosses say there is room for revisions to the plans.

Charity searches for volunteers

A DUDLEY charity is looking for volunteers to work with vulnerable people. The Dudley Advocacy voluntary project is recruiting people to help the needy with day-to-day activities and act as confidantes to help them with a number of tasks.

Helpers will be required to make phone calls, pursue complaints and also chat to vulnerable and disabled people. Full training is given and no experience is necessary. For more information or to get involved, people can call Karen Jones on 01384 456877.

Where Yugo, Ian goes – even out to Serbia

A CLASSIC car club in the Black Country set up to preserve a rare Communist vehicle could be linking up with fellow enthusiasts in Serbia.

Vehicle inspector Ian Macaulay, from Brierley Hill, has a passion for the quirky Yugoslavian produced Zastava-Yugo.

The 53-year-old has since been contacted by a host of people across the country and even by enthusiasts living where the car was made.

"It shows that we are recognised as a proper club with many existing members interested in preserving the Yugo," he said.

UK club members now plan to drive their Yugos to the factory where they were built in Serbia.

Anyone wishing to find out more about the club can call 07732 054569.

Pub reopening date is delayed

RE-OPENING of a landmark Black Country pub has been delayed after bosses went back to the drawing boards on plans to refurbish the empty site.

The Thorns Pub in Quarry Bank was expected to open its doors late last month as Marston's Brewery was eager to have the building up and running again.

But the brewery said the refurbishment scheme had taken slightly longer than planned to finalise and work was now not expected to begin until next month.

The revamp for the pub in Thorns Road will include an al fresco dining area.

An opening date has not yet been confirmed by the brewery but a schedule is expected to be released shortly after the work is completed later on in the year.

The pub's carvery, which was well-known across the Black Country, will also return once the pub re-opens after its interior refurbishment is completed.

Empty

A new licensee to take over the day-to-day running of the pub has not been officially confirmed.

A spokesman for Marston's said: "We are currently in the process of tweaking the plans for the refurbishment of the Thorns pub."

"However this process has taken slightly longer than we initially planned."

"We are now hoping to be on site in September to commence the planned works."

The pub has stood empty since January after the brewery reclaimed it from previous licensee Paul Skitt, who had run the site since 2002.

It shut its doors due to declining trade and spiralling costs which Mr Skitt said had made it impossible to continue.

Before its closure, The Thorns was one of the area's best-known pubs notable for an eye-catching mural of rock stars painted on an outside wall.

The brewery previously said interest in taking over the pub had been high and a recruitment process was ongoing to find a suitable tenant for the pub.

At its height, the pub was also well-known for its music nights and won a series of awards.

Moves to bring in more visitors

Extra craft displays and demonstrations will be held at a Black Country centre on Saturdays to attract more visitors and give more artists a chance to show their work.

The first expanded opening event at the Ruskin Glass Centre, Wollaston Road, Ambrose, will take place next Saturday. Around 10 additional artists will be on site on the last Saturday of every month. Demonstrations will be held to give visitors a glimpse into how each piece is created and the ideas behind designs. All 17 permanently artists based at the centre will also be open during the events.

The first event will run from 11am to 4pm.

Power up, play time

CONTRACTORS finished work at a Halesowen country park – and then installed play equipment for children.

The toddlers' play area at Waseley Hills Country Park, near Romsley, in Halesowen, has had the revamp courtesy of National Grid.

Recently refurbishments to for the new kit in the toddlers' overhead power cables and play area.

Corking results for vineyard

Martin Vickers of Halfpenny Green Vineyard in Bobbington is celebrating winning five national wine awards with marketing officer Jennifer Sherif

A POPULAR Midland vineyard is cracking open its award-winning bubbly to toast a handsome haul from a national contest.

Halfpenny Green Vineyards in Bobbington, South Staffordshire, scooped five awards at the 2011 English and Welsh Wine of the Year competition.

It was awarded silvers for its white English sparkling wine, the Halfpenny Green Sparkling, and single variety Schönburger Long Acre.

Bronzes were presented for the 2006 Halfpenny Green Pink Sparkling, single variety Huxelrebe called Tom Hill and medium-dry

Penny Black. Sales and marketing officer Jennifer Sherif said: "We are all delighted and hope the wines produced this year will help us to awards next year."

She added: "We are pleased with the publicity English wines are getting and the way the industry is growing in this country."

"English wines are winning a lot of awards and were even served at the Royal Wedding."

The vineyard, in Tom Lane, is set in 26 acres.

It includes tea rooms and a craft centre.

New KFC signs are in pipeline

Plans to put up signs outside a new Halesowen restaurant have been submitted to the council. If given the go ahead, they would be put up outside a KFC which is being built as part of a Travelodge on Earls Way. A planning application has been submitted to Dudley Council.

Car boot chaos blocks the road

POLICE were forced to stop bargain hunters entering a car boot sale near Dudley after it attracted hundreds more people than normal, leading to traffic chaos on surrounding roads.

Hundreds of cars queued to get into the field in Himley, off the busy A449 Stourbridge Road, causing lengthy tailbacks. Organisers said more people had flocked to the site than normal on Sunday because another car boot sale nearby did not take place.

Police were forced to divert traffic away from Col's Car Boot Sale on the B4176 Himley Bypass for around two hours. Bosses said they were taking steps to avoid a repeat this Sunday by opening an overspill car park on an adjacent field.

Gavin Williamson, MP for South Staffordshire, said: "We need to get officials together because this is a recurring problem with car boot sales. People are becoming prisoners in their own homes."

Car boot sale organiser Colin Turley said: "It was just volume of traffic. We have another field now where we can put an overspill car park."

Painted stairs will give a smart and clean look

Dressers are very useful for clearing away clutter

Why it's hall or nothing to make the right impression

IT'S easy to revamp your hall with these useful additions.

STEP IT UP: For a smart, fresh look with a wipe-clean finish, paint your stairs. It looks great, but do bear in mind you may find it's noisier without a carpet.

Give the stairs a sanding with coarse sandpaper. Wipe away any dust and stir afterwards using a soft damp cloth, and ensure stairs are dry before continuing.

For a smooth, long-lasting finish, apply one coat of floor paint.

Allow to dry for five hours, then add a second coat and leave to dry for a further six hours.

International quick drying floor paint, £13.99 for 750ml, available from hardware and DIY stores.

SAND AND REVEAL: Sanding old floorboards is one of the cheapest ways to give a hall a new look, says TV presenter Jo Behari, who hosts Channel 4's Make Do And Mend programme.

Keep everything in this neat six-basket console unit

Hire a sander, and an edge sander for areas next to the skirting and corners.

To stop dust spreading throughout the house, make sure you have everything you

MAKE A GALLERY: Give a collection of old picture frames a new lease of life by painting them, and either displaying them empty, or pop in postcards and photos that can be easily changed. The hall is also a great place to display children's artwork.

For a flawless finish, sand frames first, then use a coat of primer, before applying paint. ProAqua eggshell paint, £26 for 750ml, from Earthborn Paints (www.earthbornpaints.co.uk/01928 734 171).

CLUTTER SOLUTION: Ample storage is vital in a hall so it's easy to put away shoes, bags and outdoor kit. The Holding Company's six-basket console unit, £345, complete with woven linen baskets, is good looking, roomy and adds the finishing touch to a hallway transformation (www.theholdingcompany.co.uk/020 8445 2888).

Teach pupils how to save lives say family

Care getting a £10m increase

HOSPITAL bosses in Dudley will spend more than £10.5million on new equipment to help improve care over the next three years.

The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust, which runs Russells Hall and the Guest hospitals in Dudley and Corbett in Stourbridge, will invest £2.5m in 2011/12 and the same amount in 2012/13 and 2013/14. Staff are being asked for their views on what equipment is needed.

A further £2.2m will be spent on new imaging equipment used to carry out body scans. A further £502,000 will be paid out in 2012/13 and £365,000 in 2013/14.

The proposals are outlined in the trust's forward plan, which it has submitted to independent regulator Monitor. The report says: "The trust needs to ensure that it has imaging equipment that incorporates the latest technology. Over the next three years, 10 pieces of imaging equipment will be replaced."

The parents of Halesowen heart transplant girl Jasmine Page whose life was saved by first-aiders at her school are backing a campaign to ensure all pupils are taught life-saving skills.

Andy and Sandra Page, of Hunnington Drive, say the subject should be as important as teaching children their times tables. Jasmine, now aged 13, was saved by staff who gave her cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR).

She had suffered a heart attack in the corridor at Halesowen's Windsor High School in January.

She then became the first person to undergo a heart transplant at Birmingham Children's Hospital, which was carried out there by surgeons who travelled from London's Great Ormond Street Hospital.

Mr and Mrs Page are now supporting a campaign by the British Heart Foundation and Resuscitation Council UK to make CPR lessons compulsory in schools. "Knowing how to stop bleeding or perform CPR should be as important as learning times tables," said Mr Page, aged 47.

"Windsor High School already does this and I know Jasmine learned it in Year 7."

"But currently not all children leave school having learned the basic skills that could save a life in an emergency."

"Immediate CPR, delivered at the scene, can double or even triple the chances of survival after a cardiac arrest."

He and Mrs Page, 44, are urging people to add their names to a petition calling for the compulsory teaching of CPR, which can be found on the British Heart Foundation's website at bhf.org.uk

The procedure, which involves chest compressions and mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, kept Jasmine's blood flowing and stopped her suffering brain damage during the crucial minutes before paramedics arrived.

Guidance

Among others supporting the British Heart Foundation campaign is pop legend Shakin' Stevens, best known for 1980s hits This Ole House and Green Door.

He suffered a cardiac arrest last year and was saved by his partner, Sue Davies, who carried out CPR under guidance from the phone operator. "People need to be more aware," he said.

Stations to shut despite objections

PLANS to close Halesowen and Cradley Heath fire stations will go ahead despite a consultation process.

FBU bosses say West Midlands Fire Service has admitted that reversing the decision to close the two stations is not up for discussion at public consultation meetings next month. The fire service wants to merge the stations. The move would mean the loss of one of the 24-hour fire crews in the area.

The union says that at least 28 frontline firefighter posts could be affected.

FBU West Midlands regional secretary Chris Downes said: "Lives will be put at risk because how can you deal with one incident in Halesowen and another in Cradley Heath?"

Fire Service spokeswoman Lindsey Preece said: "The decision to merge the stations was taken by the fire authority back in 2009."

A public meeting will take place on September 1 at Lutley Community Centre, Brookwillow Road, Halesowen.

Cousins

CELEBRATING 26 YEARS
OF FURNITURE
RETAILING

For 26 years, Cousins has been one of the leading family owned furniture retailers of its kind in the UK...

and now employs more than 140 people. During that time, the Company has continued to expand both in terms of the number of stores and the choice available.

Set up by three cousins, Robert, Edward and William, the Company now employs a second generation of the family at its three stores in Birmingham/Solihull, Dudley and Manchester, providing continuity for customers and a wealth of product knowledge.

Robert and Edward remain very actively involved in the business, with Robert as the company Chairman. They have recently strengthened the management team to ensure the continued future success of the company.

John Shotton, Robert's eldest son, who has worked at Cousins since 1994, is now Managing Director. John has enjoyed an extensive retailing career and 17 years ago, joined Cousins.

Matt Shotton, Robert's youngest son, started at Cousins in 1997 and has worked in most areas of the business. He is Retail Director with full responsibility for bed buying - and overall control of the Company's three large retail Stores.

Richard Foster is Operations Director and has been with Cousins for 15 years. He initially started as a bedding consultant when Cousins opened their second store in Dudley in 1996 and has been involved in most areas of the business.

Edward's son Thomas Shotton, helps to manage the Dudley store along with Roger Horner, who joined Cousins from the opening of the Dudley store in 1996.

The original store and warehouse in Birmingham opened in 1985. Pat Shiels has recently been appointed Store Manager of the Birmingham store and brings a wealth of retail experience to the company.

In 1996, the Company expanded further, creating a landmark store in Dudley. This expansion continued with the opening of a third flagship store on Regent Road in Salford, Manchester in 2005. The store, was opened by stars of Coronation Street and has been widely acclaimed as England's finest furniture store. It is managed by David Fisher, who has extensive experience of furniture retailing.

The Company is now celebrating its' 26 years in furniture retailing and despite the difficult economic climate, Managing Director John Shotton is looking forward with confidence.

He said "In these days of large chains, we are still very much a family business - and our success over previous years has been built on offering high quality personal service to our customers and the widest selection of designer living room, dining room, bedroom, kitchen and flooring ranges from leading manufacturers - at prices that customers can afford.

The last 26 years have been a great period for the Company and the whole family are justifiably proud of how far we have come," he said. "We have a fantastic team of staff, some of whom have been here since we opened our doors in 1985. We couldn't have become such a success without their continual hard work and dedication.

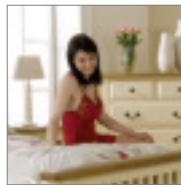

The staff at our stores in Birmingham, Dudley and Manchester are looking forward to showing you the latest designs from our suppliers and helping us to celebrate our 26th anniversary while looking forward to another 26 years.

Boost for hospice by epic cycle across US

Richard Slusarczyk, aged 52

A former Black Country man now living in the USA has completed an epic 3,000 mile Trans-Am cycle ride for a Black Country hospice.

Richard Slusarczyk, formerly of Brierley Hill who now lives in Phoenix, Arizona, gave family and friends on both continents updates via a regular internet blog.

Mr Slusarczyk, aged 52, even suffered a painful crash when he fell off his bike on a bridge over the Mississippi.

He started his ride at Disneyland, in California, on May 15, finishing the trip on July 7 in Florida.

He rode his beloved Bianchi bike which is used by riders on the Tour de France.

More than £1,900 has been raised towards Stourbridge's Mary Stevens Hospice which the family has supported for years.

His route was called the Trans-Am

Ride which involved Richard starting with his rear bike wheel in the Pacific Ocean and completing the adventure when his front wheel was dipped in the Atlantic.

The keen Wolves fan was joined by friend Ian Dodd for the trip.

His sister Helen, aged 59, of Norton, Stourbridge, said: "Arriving at Disney Florida he was greeted by many English holiday makers in Florida, amazed at his achievement."

Goal

Rotarians in America provided him with accommodation.

And Mr Slusarczyk said: "They all had the same message, don't waver from the goal, you're almost there."

"I simply said don't worry, I'm from the Black Country."

"We don't waver and we don't flinch when the going gets tough."

Read more about his ride at www.americaend2endbybike.wordpress.com

Man sentenced

An 18-year-old who stole lead and copper from an empty Sedgley house has been told to carry out 100 hours unpaid work and given a curfew for three months.

Dean Groom and another man were seen on the garage roof at the property in Round Hill, at 5.50am on June 26. Dudley magistrates heard power tools, lead, copper and alcohol were taken. Police also found him in a van in Springfield Avenue, Dudley, on July 5 with 35 sheets of lead flashing inside.

Groom, of Cross Lane, Beacon Estate, Sedgley, pleaded guilty to burglary, theft and handling, must also pay £172 compensation. Mrs Nishi Kumar, defending, asked that he be given credit for his guilty pleas.

Classic cars on show

Hundreds of classic cars are coming to the grounds of a Midlands manor house for an annual display.

Organisers hope thousands of visitors will turn out for this year's Classic Car and Transport Show at Himley Hall, near Dudley, on September 4.

Around 800 vehicles from across the region line up on the lawns of the hall for the event now in its 12th year. Vehicles dating back to the 1920s are among the cars exhibiting.

Enthusiasts from across the region will be competing to win one of 19 categories during the day.

Gates open between 10am and 5pm. Admission is priced at £6 for adults and pensioners and £2 for children. Free onsite car parking will be available.

Workers plan the next stage of the demolition of the old Quarry Bank Primary School to make way for a sports pitch, garden and car park

Demolition underway at 76-year-old school

Demolition work has begun at a former Quarry Bank Primary School as part of a £7.6 million revamp of the site.

The old building is making way for a new sports pitch, garden and car park. A new school has already been built next to the old site and is ready for children to start in September.

The old school in the High Street, which dates back to 1935, was no longer fit for purpose after the walls began crumbling.

Workers have been taking down brickwork in stages.

The gradual demolition is under way to reduce the risk of damaging the nearby school buildings.

Timber and tiles were first stripped from the roof and recycled.

Contractors Bowmer and Kirkland plan to have all the work done by the start of the new term on September 5.

Site manager Brian Appleby said: "Work is progressing well and we are on target to finish on time."

Remove

"As everything went to plan so far we had time to remove some of the materials gradually and recycle them."

Most classrooms at the new school will have external teaching areas and the school will be energy efficient through the use of solar panels and triple-glazed windows.

The school's recently-built children's centre will remain on the site as will the listed Victorian caretaker's house.

Dudley Council said the present school building was no longer fit for purpose and needed a revamp.

The school will be equipped with state-of-the-art technology and IT systems. Architectural designs have been drawn up to allow as much natural light in to the new building as possible. The new premises will contain a nursery for 45 children and two classrooms for children with language learning difficulties, which will each hold 12 students. A 49-space car park will be created alongside a sports field, playgrounds and school garden.

Hyundai wipes drivers' blues with new fuel-sipping model

Low emissions and excellent fuel economy are a bonus for thrifty motorists

FOLLOWING on from the successful i10 Blue launched at the beginning of the year, Hyundai has added another sub-100g/km CO2 model to its range – the i20 Blue.

With emissions of 98g/km, it is the lowest emitting vehicle in Hyundai UK's line-up.

The i20 Blue is based on the current i20 Comfort trim level, mated to the 1.4 CRDi 90 PS engine, and is priced at £13,195 on-the-road.

To achieve the CO2 figures, the i20 Blue has the following Blue Drive technologies: Intelligent Stop & Go (ISG), low rolling resistance tyres, rear suspension under cover and rear-wheel deflector. With these, the i20 Blue achieves a 12 per cent reduction in emissions (compared to the current 1.4 CRDi 90PS Style i20 model) from 111g/km to 98g/km.

Drivers of the i20 Blue won't need to make regular visits to a fuel station. The 1.4 CRDi Euro V compliant four-cylinder engine achieves 76.4mpg combined – the kind of cheap-to-run credentials that are important as the cost of motoring continues to rise. This is a 14 per cent improvement on a combined cycle compared to the i20 1.4 CRDi 90PS Style model.

To put these figures into perspective, it would cost approximately £63 to fill up the i20 Blue with diesel for a range of 755 miles. As well as excellent fuel economy, the i20 Blue also gains exemption from VED and the London Congestion Charge as it emits less than 100g/km.

Mirrors

The i20 Blue's standard equipment includes 15-inch alloy wheels, Bluetooth connectivity with voice recognition, electric heated and folding door mirrors, electric front and rear windows, steering wheel audio controls, USB and aux connections, air conditioning and remote central locking.

Sitting alongside the i10 Blue, the new i20 Blue model demonstrates Hyundai's continuous commitment to increasing the efficiency of both its petrol and diesel engines.

On-sale now, and like all Hyundai passenger cars, the Hyundai i20 Blue comes with a Five Year Triple Care package, which includes a five-year, unlimited mileage, manufacturer backed warranty, five years of roadside assistance and five years of annual vehicle health checks.

Low failure rate takes manufacturer to the top of the table with What Car?

Honda wins on reliability

HONDA beat rivals to the top of the What Car? league table thanks to an impressively-low nine per cent failure rate in the first 12 months.

Honda dominated the top of the SUV table with the HR-V and CR-V at number one and two. Jazz and Accord both came fifth in their respective classes while Civic came third as a small hatchback.

What Car? editor in chief, Chas Hallett said: "The success of Honda in this year's reliability study is very impressive, especially as this is Honda's sixth overall win as the UK's most reliable car maker. Reliability is key for car buyers. The car makers at the bottom of the study have a lot of work to do to catch up with Honda," he added.

What Car? is not the only title to recognise Honda's bullet-proof reliability.

The 2011 Which? Car survey recently named Honda as the most reliable brand and the 2011 JD Power vehicle ownership satisfaction study saw Honda retain the number two spot in the overall league table – the highest-placed volume manufacturer. The JD Power Survey awarded Jazz its eighth consecutive win in the supermini class and for the second year running Accord topped the chart in the family car category, while Civic and CR-V were ranked second in their respective classes.

Influential

Honda also holds the top spot as Britain's most reliable car manufacturer in the influential FN50 survey. Honda beat off rivals in this annual survey which is published by industry-leading publication Fleet News.

The report covers 1.5 million vehicles owned or managed by the country's 50 largest contract hire companies. Honda also featured highly in the top ten most reliable cars with the Accord and British-built Civic in second and ninth place respectively. Dave Hodgetts, managing director of Honda (UK), said: "We strive to make every second of Honda ownership an enjoyable experience, and that means looking after our drivers throughout their use of our cars."

"This all starts with building reliable and high quality cars that are affordable to run and maintain, but continues with service at our dealers that exceeds expectation."

At the heart of Honda's approach is understanding and meeting customer requirements. Honda takes a complete approach to build quality and vehicle reliability.

Reliability isn't just a focus during the manufacturing process but also at the research and development stage, during the parts procurement process and is a key part of the work Honda carries out with suppliers. Only by focussing on vehicle quality throughout the design and build process can Honda deliver such a strong record for cars that just don't go wrong.

Since 2004/05, Honda has had a uniform manufacturing process across the world, meaning that the same models, built in different manufacturing plants, are assembled in an identical fashion. This helps to deliver consistency in manufacturing activity and output.

The Jazz won the Supermini class in the JD Power Survey

The British-built Civic came ninth in the Fleet News annual survey

Stour poised to set points record

THE top two sides in Worcester Cricket League's Division One went head to head and Astwood Bank slightly got the better of Stourbridge with a winning draw.

It merely delayed the inevitable, though, with Stourbridge still ahead by 69 points and on track for a new points record, writes Chris Marsh. Pershore had Lee Wilks (95 not out and 5-48) to thank as they narrowly beat lowly Redditch by three wickets. Nomads and Bromyard fought out a thrilling tie, both making 252, with Nomads' number 10 smashing what looked a certain boundary at his partner on the last ball before running a single to level the scores. Romsley lost to Pedmore thanks to Danny McDonnell's 101 no, and are surely doomed to Division Two cricket.

Bewdley beat Oldswinford by three wickets. In the final match Droitwich scored 313-8 thanks to Ian Cotterill's 106 but could not dislodge the final Worcester wicket.

In Division Two, with Colwall beat Kidderminster and Coombe Wood defeated fourth-placed Burghill, Hagley swept aside Feckenham for just 38 all out, Dominies beat Malvern and for Belbroughton, 15-year-old Ollie Hawker recorded 142 no as his team swept Netherton's 261-4 aside.

Monmouth's 308-3 was not enough to secure a winning draw despite Fraser Kilgour smashing 119 not out against Wormelov.

Division Three leaders Rushwick overcame Harborne, while Alvechurch beat Chaddesley and Stourport thrashed Himbleton. Tenbury won the Division Four title by beating Brintons, and Stourbridge Social were beaten by Alveley. Martley who won away to overtake Amblesote at the foot of the table.

Division Five leaders Old Hill won at Bromsgrove and need just three points to clinch the title. Stourbridge beat Halesowen with 124 from Chris Norgrove.

YELTZ DEFIED BY KEEPER DEMPSEY

Yate Town 0 Halesowen Town 0

HALESOWEN remained unbeaten but couldn't quite find enough spark to secure a winner in a disappointing stalemate at lowly Yate.

Naveed Arshad and Lee Chilton were both unavailable due to family reasons; injured Peter Folkes was replaced by Brendan Kelly and Jean-Michel Gueyes came in to make his Halesowen debut.

Nisbett nets as Halesowen win in some style

STRIKERS Justin Nisbett and Nathan Jackson bagged their first goals of the season as Halesowen ended Bideford's 100 per cent record in style.

The Yeltz started brightly in a compelling contest with Aaron Lescott playing the ball in for Jackson to hit tamely at goalkeeper Oliver Chenoweth.

Hard-working Nisbett then missed a good chance for a seventh-minute Halesowen lead as he placed his shot wide of the post when through on goal.

Bideford began to settle and piled forward quickly when in possession, with home goalkeeper Paul Evans having to be alert to make a fine save with his legs from Ben Wood.

Seconds later Sean Downing turned well in the penalty area to hit just past the post as Bideford threatened further in Saturday's game.

Halesowen lost defender Peter Folkes to injury with Brendan Kelly his replacement and the chances continued to come thick and fast.

Storming

The Robins looked to have taken a 28th minute lead but Matt Bye was unlucky to see his shot thump back off the post with Evans beaten.

Bye then shot just wide after 39 minutes and was denied again as Evans raced out of his goal a minute later.

After coming through the Bideford storm The Yeltz were quickly out of the traps to make a storming start to the second half, with Nisbett scoring twice within five minutes.

He won a long ball from Gavin Saunders just a

Early on visiting goalkeeper Paul Evans collected a low shot from Neikel Plummer and Tom Kington nodded wide for Yate from Michael Meaker's corner.

Halesowen's Nathan Jackson received a 14th-minute yellow card on Tuesday and was then the subject of further suspicion after an incident with Kington in midfield just three minutes later.

Busy Yeltz keeper Evans was on hand to save well again in the 21st minute when Tyrone Mings – son of Chippenham manager Adie Mings – whipped in a free-kick from the edge of the penalty area.

Halesowen won their first corner of the game a minute later following a neat spell of possession but the Blue-bells cleared.

Just before half-time Kelly struck a 25-yard free-kick over the bar for the visitors.

Then another free-kick from Aaron Lescott was collected just under the crossbar by Dempsey.

Pressure

At the start of the second period Gueyes struck just wide of the target and Andrew Westwood went close from a Nathaniel Caines cross as Halesowen put pressure on Dempsey's goal.

Evans continued to command his goal and kept Halesowen's clean sheet by saving Meaker's 65th-minute shot.

He then touched a curling effort from Jake Cox around the post.

With neither side appearing likely to break the deadlock, Evans did well to hold onto a header from home captain Ed Vahid from a deep free-kick.

Captain Gavin Saunders went closest to snatching victory for the Yeltz. But his 77th-minute shot from 20 yards was superbly clawed out from under the crossbar by Dempsey to keep the 0-0 scoreline intact.

It's just like watching Barca

Halas under-13s in their new Barcelona-style kit

A HALESOWEN football team which has become a victim of its own success is on the lookout for new recruits.

Halas Hawks under-13 girls, who have unveiled a new Barcelona-style kit for the forthcoming season, need players to help them compete in the Stourbridge and District League.

The girls finished last season in style by winning the League Cup but have since seen three players snapped up by the Wolves and Albion academies.

With the new season starting in September they need more players. Manager Chris Gennard said: "Win, lose or draw, our emphasis is on enjoyment."

Any Year 7 or 8 girls interested in joining should call Chris on 07900 683148 or Martin on 07719 947443.

The team's new kit has been sponsored by plastics and glass distributor FDL.

Heathens pledge after huge loss

DUDLEY Heathens are promising free entry for children next week and an extra home defeat since reforming.

And the club is also looking at further signings after two riders were injured in a crushing 64-27 home defeat to Stoke on Tuesday.

An uphill task against the National League leaders became Everest-like after Dudley lost both reserves, Richard Franklin and Danny Stoneman, after a crash in heat two.

Stoneman has an elbow injury but Franklin's broken shoulder has ruled him out for the rest of the season.

Davenport's timely knock shores up Hill's batting Shifnal (6pts) 221-8, Old Hill (20pts) 223-7.

Old Hill won by three wickets NIGEL DAVENPORT'S unbeaten 47 helped Old Hill to victory after they threatened to fall away in a run chase.

The First XI played hosts to Shifnal at Haden Hill in cool overcast conditions and having won the toss chose to field. The visitors opening pair were parted with the score on 25, Ed Denham making the first strike followed by a good spell by Ashfaq Hussain (4-53) from his 17 overs as Shifnal struggled to 168-7, writes Derek Griffiths.

However, the visitors were somewhat let off the hook in the remaining nine overs as they took their total to 221-8 off their 55 overs with Stuart Blount finishing 67 not out assisted by some lusty blows from Jonty Mountfield (30).

Old Hill opens Dan Cox (28) and Mike Hingley began cautiously putting together an opening stand of 65 before Cox was first to go.

Hingley was then joined by Nitesh Patel (53) who scored a superb half century before being out with the score on 140.

The home batsmen then appeared to lose their way although Mike Hingley looked well set for a ton until he was out unexpectedly for an excellent 71 runs.

Then, having been promoted to number five by captain Mark Fisher, Nigel Davenport steadied the ship and guided Old Hill to victory with a brilliant undefeated innings of 47. The win keeps Old Hill in the promotion mix. Wolverhampton (17pts) 242-6, Old Hill (6pts) 174-7. Draw

The seconds visited the home of league leaders Wolverhampton and came away with a very creditable draw.

Having won the toss, Old Hill chose to field and the hosts made the most of first use of a good wicket to post a score of 242-7 off 50 overs.

In reply, Old Hill could not score quickly enough to trouble the bowlers, although Joe Thorn (55) and Dan Jones (52 not out) hatted well for Old Hill, as did veteran Alan Neal who helped the lower order to put up the shutters and ensure that the visitors came away with a draw.

Bromsgrove (1pt) 138, Old Hill (20pts) 139-2.

Old Hill won by eight wickets The thirds visited fellow title contenders Bromsgrove in a top of the Table clash at St Godwalds Park.

Again, having won the toss, they chose to field and after a slow start the visitors bowlers got to work.

Dan Such (4-26) and Chris Round (2-23) started the ball rolling and then Winston Lewis took four wickets for 33 runs, including a hat-trick, as the home side were shot out for 138 in just 34 overs with only Walker (36) showing any resistance to the rampant Old Hill attack.

In reply, the visitors' batsmen were virtually untroubled as Dan Such (46), Chris Round (41) and Reece Shilcock (28 not out) led the charge for victory to ensure promotion to Division Four of the WCL.

Old Hill (24pts) 272-5, Bromsgrove (2pts) 77.

Old Hill won by 195 runs Having lost the toss, Old Hill were asked to bat first in their game against Bromsgrove at Wassall Green and their batsmen made an excellent start to the innings.

Leading the way was Izmah Khan (105 not out) with a magnificent century, closely followed by Ryan Andrews (85) as the hosts posted 272-5 off their 45 overs.

The visitors' batsmen never got to grips with the home bowlers as they ripped through the Bromsgrove line-up in just 29 overs to win by a massive 195 runs.

Leading the charge for Old Hill were Ifzian Khan (4-17), Lewis Javadi (2-9) and captain Irshad Ahmed (2-31).

With the news that the thirds had gained promotion earlier in the day, the fourths could also celebrate elevation to Division Four of the WCL Second XI competition.

Old Hill (10pts) 286, Romsley (0pts) 263-8.

Old Hill won by 23 runs The Sunday XI played hosts to Romsley and looked to be in trouble at 80-5 in the 15th over. But in came Ollie Moseley (51) and Dan Jones (60) to push the score past 200 before a late flurry of boundaries from Steve Derham (39).

After losing an early wicket, the Romsley batsmen responded to the challenge with some big hitting from Painter (64), Peery (64) and Stibborne (58), getting close to the home side's score as the overs ran out with Old Hill winning by 23 runs. Best bowlers for the hosts were Jon Baig (2-10) and Dan Jones (2-37).
